Fun game.

10V10 would horse again. There are few moments in the history of games, where you have to take a step back, and appreciate the majesty of a single moment that transcends gaming, art, culture, the boundaries of human imagination. That moment... is SNOWHORSE.. You're probably thinking... What the heck is this?

It's a game you must have! It brings me back to my childhood, playing snowboard games on my PS1. But now, it's a horse instead of a human snowboarding! Could it be any better?. Best Snow Game Ever!

10V10 would horse again. "So...There is a Horse, he likes to Snowboard."

That is what I assume the pitch for this game was; and as far as pitches go it isn't bad.

The snowboarding mostly works, though there doesn't seem to be a lot of correlation between what way your horse is facing and whether you crash or not.

The controls are generally responsive, if uninspired. It is hard to see what the tricks buttons do although the stars show up which is neat I guess.

I would also like fo there to be some downhill feeling. It all just feels like a flat surface that you are auto sliding down.

Anyway, good horse game...okay snowboarding game.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xvsmxiZzqzg>. Snow Horse is likely one of the most unique experiences you'll find this year. It has responsive well designed controls and plays like a hybrid of Cool Boarders 3 and the older style Tony Hawk games that were produced by Activision.

This is a game best enjoyed with headphones. the soundtrack is really a star player in this frigid equine cast and I find myself leaving the game open just to listen to it while I'm working.

The price point is good. and makes this game a great gifting idea!

P.S. You can also make the horse wear a top hat.. I get it is a joke game

I get it is a game you give for and giggles

But good god I have seen better collision detection in bad rats

This is a 6 dollar hunk of trash that you should never even think of buying for a joke

It has two moves

Horse spinner-Literally spin any which way

Hay grind (or some- fly along these green lines that are brighter than the lights in this game

Don't buy this anyway

it is awful

. Love it hope in the future there is a multi player option with really hard maps so its a race 10V10 would play again. It costs six human dollars as opposed to horse coin. Not good. Deal. Bro
